Les Dames d'Escoffier, Boston Chapter is sponsoring a Green Tables event to promote foods grown on local farms. Green Tables is an initiative of Les Dames d'Escoffier International which showcases the work of LDEI chapters engaged in linking urban and rural farms and gardens to school, restaurant and kitchen tables. More can be learned about the Green Tables initiative by visiting www.greentables.org. Please explore the resources and tools they offer to further this initiative in your community, and join us as we celebrate the work underway.

Dinner includes locally raised beef from River Rock Farm, pork from Blood Farm and Verrill Farm produce, all paired with wines from Gordon's Fine Wines, Harpoon Beers, Sangria and soft drinks.

Why go to the supermarket for foods shipped from distant factory farms when you can feed your family nutritious, locally grown food? You can purchase meats that come from humanely-raised, pasture-fed animals which is important to their health and yours. Come and see why it benefits you to support your local farms, and have fun at the same time!
